FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

WIDE AWAKES ATTEND!

There will be a meeting of Wide Awakes THIS EVENING, for the purpose of dividing into regular companies, and numbering uniforms.

Every man will be present with his uniform, as it is important that every single uniform should be present.

Per order, R. R. HAZARD, Jr.,
Oct. 11

The Elections.

The election of Curtin, the Republican candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania, is conceded by his opponents. His majority is estimated from 15,000 to 20,000. In six of the eight Congressional districts heard from, Republicans are surely elected.

Ohio has gone Republican by a large majority. The returns from Indiana are meagre, but indicate Republican gains.

REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION.

We have again and again suggested to the gentlemen who form this association the necessity of organization, and work in view of the approaching vote for President, and as yet hear of no response.

No public meeting has yet been called, and no public duties performed.

The Wide Awakes are doing their part, there are already over one hundred members of this organization, and it promises to reach 2 or 3 hundred before the close of the campaign. Its work is to arouse the young, and to bring new recruits into the ranks of the party, and any one who will glance at the roll of the Association will not fail to observe that it has accomplished its purpose beyond reasonable expectation. It also will have its canvassing, and other work to do, and it will do it.

But "The Republican Association" have also their duties. Documents ought to be distributed to dissipate the prejudices against the party and its measures, which exist in the mind of many well meaning opponents, who if they could divorce the measures of the Republican party from the vulgar slang which has been directed against them; if they could be brought to read the platform of our party as adopted at Chicago, and learn that so far from being Radicals, Abolitionists and Revolutionists, we are truly Conservative of all the inheritance of our fathers. That we are for the "Non-Extension," and not "Abolition," of Slavery. That we propose not only to abide by the Constitution, and the laws ourselves, but to oblige the obedience of ALL to these laws, and that Constitution in any event. That we alone favor the Protection to American industry which has formed the main doctrine of our population for 50 years. That we alone propose to secure a homestead from our wide national domain to the honest, industrious, but poor mechanic, or farmer, and that we mean to elevate the standard of our foreign diplomacy to the dignity of the past, and ensure that American ministers, to absolute courts, shall not be the apologists and defenders of Slavery, but shall exercise a warm hearty sympathy for liberty everywhere.

These and many other things ought to be understood, if we would double our party, and have the moral weight of this city on the side of pure, high-toned public, and domestic policy.

Let the "Republican Association" arouse to the duty before them. Yet a little while, and the opportunity will be past. If they pre-empt in their desire, not only to secure the election of Lincoln, but to give him a majority of the popular votes of the American people, now is the day and hour to be at work.

We urge you thus earnestly, and finally. Brothers you can now strike a blow which will direct the politics of this city for years! Will you, or will you not, THAT IS THE QUESTION.

"AM I GILES OR AM I NOT?"

It strikes us that there used to be a party hereabouts that called itself Democratic, or something of that sort. In our memory falling as through advanced years, or was there not such a party as that, which held in some sort to the right of supremacy of Manhood over Money? If we are correct, and any members of that bygone party take interest in that fact, that a Fashion Convention has recently been held in Rhode Island, by which an Electoral Ticket has been nominated, and is said to make the State safe against Lincoln! The qualifications for a place on this ticket appear to have been as follows:

1. To have been never a Democrat.
2. To have been an "Algerine" in "Dorr times."
3. To have at least $1,000,000 invested in bank and factory stock.
4. To be willing to "shell out."

Having found four gentlemen who possessed the needed qualifications, they have put them up, expecting them to buy their way through. But the calculation will prove fallacious. Rhode Island was thoroughly disgraced as well as debauched last Spring, and is determined to incur no further disgrace, in that direction. There is not money enough in her hundred banks to buy her Electoral vote away from Lincoln and Hamlin.—New York Tribune.

The Tribune need not be at all uneasy about the little State of Rhode Island. It is as sure for Lincoln and Hamlin as it was for conservative principles last spring, when the issue was between an Abolitionist and a Republican. The Governor, whose election in the words of the Tribune "was a disgrace to us" is a zealous Republican and was at the time of his election. We understand our own politics and need no dictation.

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

Robert Sheffield was brought from jail to Court and was arraigned on a former indictment for arson. Plead not guilty. Remanded to jail until morning, for trial.

GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury came in at 10 minutes before 6 o'clock. They were called, and having answered to their names, preferred indictments against Nicholas S. Boss, for assault and battery, with intent to kill. Arraigned and plead not guilty. Trial in the morning.

Adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

THIRD DAY.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 10.

Court met at 9 o'clock, A. M.

First case called was State vs. Nicholas E. Boss, for trial upon indictment found by the Grand Jury yesterday, for an assault with intent to kill, upon Antonio Sylvia, a Portuguese. Jury empanelled and sworn, Wm. P. Congdon, Esq., foreman. Attorney General for State Van Zandt for defence.

It will be remembered that on the night of the tenth of September last a man by the name of Swift, was stabbed fatally and soon after died. This Swift was the brother-in-law of Capt. Boss the defendant. Antonio Sylvia the person assaulted was the mate of Capt. Boss's vessel. These persons were all three in company on the evening of the murder of Swift, and of this alleged assault of Boss upon Sylvia. After the death of Swift, Boss and his mate Sylvia were both arraigned and tried before the Court of Justices, for the murder of Swift. Boss was discharged and Sylvia was bound over to the Supreme Court in February next, as probably guilty of the murder of Swift. Boss was then arraigned and tried before the Court of Justices, for an assault with intent to kill upon Sylvia. Boss was convicted of an assault, but not intent to kill, and was bound over to this Court for trial.

Andrew J. Bryer, Galen Davis, Samuel J. Marsh, Henry N. Brownell, Benjamin Bryer and Antonio Sylvia, were called for the State. There was a general concurrence in their testimony as to the following facts. That at about 10 o'clock on evening of the tenth of September, the parties all three entered the shop of Andrew J. Bryer, that Boss came in first, dragging in Sylvia by the collar, and asking him if he said that he (Boss) had robbed him, that Sylvia replied no, no no say so, that soon after Swift came in and Boss asked him if he (Sylvia) was the man that stabbed him, that he repeatedly said so, that thereupon Boss threw the Spaniard on the floor and kicked and struck him about the head and face, that Swift also kicked him, that they were separated by the persons present, and Sylvia and Boss taken into custody by the police. Sylvia gave the additional evidence that there was a difficulty between him and Boss a little while before at the saloon of James Potter, that his eye and nose were badly hurt and swollen, and dressed by a Doctor. Henry A. Rice and James G. Topham called for the defence: nothing new elicited or particularly conflicting with the prisoner's testimony.

Mr. Topham was called as Clerk of the Court of Justices, in order to put in the record of that Court in regard to the examinations of Boss and Sylvia: objected to by the Attorney General, and ruled out by the Judge, who said that the Jury were to try this case now upon its merits without any reference to the proceedings of the Court of Magistrates. The defence here rested, and Mr. Van Zandt addressed the Jury in an able plea of defence of twenty-five minutes, to establish to the Jury that it was not, in an assault, an aggravated but a justifiable one, under the circumstances.

The Attorney General closed the case on the part of the State in a clear and able review of the testimony as well as of the nature of the assault, maintaining it to be brutal and unjustifiable, even under the circumstances, Boss having no right to assault another man who had done him no personal injury, and that the stabbing of Swift could not be possibly introduced in mitigation of the offence. The Attorney General closed 15 minutes past eleven, having spoken twenty-five minutes.

Judge Sherman then charged the Jury, that the only question before them was whether an assault had been committed or not, as laid in the indictment, defining the technicalities of an assault, that they were not to consider the stabbing affray or any other circumstance at all, but simply the testimony as heard by them. The Jury then retired to their room at twenty minutes past eleven.

The Jury came in after an absence of ten minutes with a verdict of guilty of assault with intent to kill, as laid in the indictment. Sentence continued until afternoon.

Robert Sheffield the colored man was brought into Court and arraigned upon an indictment for arson, in the town of New Shoreham. He plead guilty, and was sentenced to four years imprisonment in the State Prison in the County of Providence. This case was a very peculiar one. The poor miserable man who was sentenced, was clearly a non compos mentis, infatighe had not reason enough to render him an accountable being. He did not realize his position, nor what was the meaning of the questions put to him in regard to his guilt or innocence, but he admitted that he set fire to the buildings, and on that admission was sentenced. He is dangerous while at large because he could be easily influenced by others, for a small amount not only of money but of liquor, to commit any crime. To employ such a being as a tool of mischief is fiendish, and in all cases of crime or the execution of malice. There should be, if there is not, a discretionary power with Courts in such cases, to sentence to some proper asylum, for guardianship and keeping for life.

CIVIL DOCKET.

Joseph H. Brown vs. Thomas Read.—Death of plaintiff suggested at last term; administratrix cited, no administration taken out, action dismissed by consent. Van Zandt & Cranston for plaintiff, Sheffield for defendant.

Earl P. Mason & Co. vs. John H. Clegg et al. Judgment for plaintiffs on bond. Van Zandt, Rice & Gilpin for plaintiffs, Sheffield & White for defendant.

George Freeborn, City Treasurer, vs. Joseph Smith et al. Judgment for plaintiff on bond. Van Zandt, Rice & Gilpin for City, Sheffield for defendant.

Joseph Smith vs. Wm. G. Carpenter.—Action for false return on a dog writ. Jury empanelled—Henry Bull, Esq., Foreman.

The plaintiff's declaration was upon the alleged non-reading to him of the writ, and that upon said writ judgment was rendered and he was taken into custody by the then Sheriff Lake, and committed to jail. Damage laid at $500. Opening plea for defence made. Van Zandt, Rice & Gilpin for plaintiff, Sheffield & White for defendant.

Adjourned to 3 o'clock P. M.

WIDE AWAKE POLITICS.

Wide-Awake Parade.

The Wide Awakes made their second parade last night, with one hundred torches, in honor of the successes in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. They were in fine spirits, and made a most inspiring appearance. Each member carried, in addition to the torch, a flag, and a banner bearing the likeness of the next President. The Society now numbers about one hundred and twenty-five, and is daily increasing. The Wide Awake movement in this city is unparalleled in the history of our politics.

Sour Grapes.—The Providence Post is opposed to a grand Democratic torch light procession in New York. It is afraid the weakness of the party would be too much exposed. The Post is very responsive as to the result of the election in Pennsylvania next week, advising its friends not to be too sure of Foster's election. It consoles itself however, by the hope that even should Pennsylvania go against it, by ten or even twenty or thirty thousand majority it will not despair of carrying the State against Lincoln. This will be hoping against hope indeed.

Florida Opposed to Disunion.—The Washington Star remarks: "It is said that all the Presidential electors in Florida have declared themselves opposed to disunion in case of Lincoln's election. Mr. George Gall, the Breckinridge elector, says the Floridian and Journal, a Breckinridge paper, has taken ground against disunion on the mere happening of such a contingency."

The New York correspondent of the Boston Bee, says,—

The speeches of Henry Winter Davis and John Minor Botts are the "unkindest cuts of all" to the Bell-ingers here. They had troubles enough at home, without receiving the cold shoulder from their best men abroad. They are in a perfect flutter of fear, for now they know that their bugaboo of disunion if Lincoln is elected will vanish into thin air, and their weak-kneed followers will desert them in legions.

When you can find three Breckinridge men in a town form a Breckinridge Club. More will join when that is done.—Concord, N. H., Standard.

We fear that if that is the requisite number to form a club, Breckinridge will have clubs in very few towns in New England. Couldn't you make it one or two, so that the Postmasters and Collectors can do it all themselves, and make a sure thing of it.

Douglas is trying to make the people of Ohio believe that he is in favor of the Homestead Bill, just as he did those of Pennsylvania that he was for a Protective Tariff. He is endeavoring most assiduously to fulfill the Scripture injunction to be all things to all men. After election he'll be nothing to nobody.

James T. Brady used the following language in his speech at Hudson on Thursday evening: "So help me Heaven, I had rather vote for Lincoln to-night than for Stephen A. Douglas."

We would impress upon the public recollection, that James Buchanan has still about six months to serve as President of the United States. We mention this because he has subsided and died out so completely from the popular attention, that the historical fact of his occupying the White House might escape the public memory, if it were not jogged now and then.—Louisville Journal.

Coming Down.—The Constitution concludes that the election of Lincoln would not dissolve the Union, but might excite to an unprecedented degree the apprehensions and indignation of the South.

A Northern Disunionist Turned Up at Last.—He isn't an office holder.—Is a Breckinridge man—lives in Rhode Island—his name is—William Beach Lawrence.

He has written a letter to some gentleman who owns a Cotton Mill, and to whom he utters the solemn warning that if Lincoln is elected "a dissolution of the Confederacy is inevitable." But he goes a further than this, and thus sets forth his own sentiments:

"Far be it from me to aggravate the complaints on the part of the South. But if a President is elected with the avowed object of creating a servile war, exposing through missionaries of abolitionism and incendiary publications, (for the distribution of which the Post Office are to be made subservient,) the property of the planters to confiscation and ruin, and their wives and daughters to horrors infinitely worse than death, no husband, however ardently attached to the Union, could resist the temptation to the fatal blow, only by refusing obedience to the Federal authorities, by insurrection, as did our ancestors of the Revolution forego all."

Now Mr. William Beach Lawrence, we conjure you not to dissolve this Union. People this way think a great deal of it, and certainly won't allow it to be done if they can prevent such dire calamity. And, Mr. Lawrence—they think they can.—Boston Bee.

A few days since, according to the New York Times, while John Minor Botts was in that city, he was asked by a member of the Ashland Association whether he would make a speech in New York in behalf of the fusion ticket. He replied that he would rather not, and that if he did it would do the fusion men more harm than good. When asked the reason why, he said: "I am going South to speak against Breckinridge and disunion, and how could I do that after having spoken here in favor of a fusion with that party? He said he had been fighting disunion all his life, and could not now do otherwise—he had lived an honest man, and intended to die one." When asked what he considered the prospect was with regard to the election, he replied: "Sir, there is not a peg to hang a doubt upon that Lincoln will be elected. No man in his senses doubts it."

The Artisans Bank and the Politicians.—The New York papers have accounts of a meeting of the depositors of the Artisans Bank, at which the affairs were investigated. It appears that Democratic politicians have had easy access to its vaults. Mr. Douglas is said to be a large debtor, having borrowed $10,000 within a short time. Mayor Wood and his brother Benjamin have figured largely in loans from the institution.

The Manchester N. H. Mirror appears this week in a beautiful new dress from the Foundry of J. K. Rogers & Co., Boston. The Mirror is published by John B. Clarke, Esq., and is a great favorite in the "Granite State." Success to it.

Miss Lane—Miss Lane played several games of ten pins with the Prince of Wales in Washington on Thursday. He laughed heartily at the sport. He has been so long deprived of ladies' society that he cannot conceal his gratification, and although "too tired for receptions is never too weary to go out with Miss Lane."

The Worcester Transcript errs in saying that Hon. W. B. Lawrence has been Governor of this State. He has been Lieutenant Governor.

A despatch to the World says Curtin's majority probably will not be less than 25,000. The Republicans probably have twenty Congressmen and a large majority of the Legislature.

The Times' despatch says the returns indicate the election of the following Congressmen:

Democrats—First District, Lehman; Second, Broadhead (gain); Fifth, Luger; Seventh, Cooper, over Longnecker, (gain); Eighth, Acaena; Sixteenth, Bailey (gain); Thirteenth, Johnson.

Other accounts elect Junkin, Republican in the Sixteenth, and Morris, Republican in the Second.

In Indiana county, Curtin has 1800 majority; a Democratic loss of 703.

"Laugh and grow fat," is a proverb daily upon the lips of people. But how shall one laugh if he does not feel like it? If his stomach is out of order, the blues will come on, no matter how much they may be resisted. A stomachy saps the spirits and destroys confidence. Drive away the indigestion, and all is right. SWIMBURN & COFFE would call the attention of the community to their New and Beautiful Selection of FALL GOODS, in both the ready made clothing that is in demand to order. There is no necessity of our discussing the beauties of the Cash system and the one price. We adopted the former years ago; the latter, and Chatham Street part, we were never guilty of, have always had independence enough to make our own price, to tell under what advantage we buy our goods. We buy them better than any other house in the city in the same trade.

Purchasers of clothing who trust will call at the store that always treated them on the true principle of trade—one price and a small profit.
